CASE 2: CHIKONDI WANTS TO BE MORE INTIMATE

The story: Wongani and Chikondi have been together for 2 months. They don't want to have sexual intercourse yet, so they abstain. But they're attracted to each other so much and they both would like to be more intimate. Up until now they didn't know what their options were.

Luckily Chikondi has just learned from a WSWM course that there are more ways to show affection, love and intimacy than just having sexual intercourse. They are walking home after school together.

Your job:

- Finish this dialogue and make sure that Chikondi can make her point in a clear way.
- Also think of a solution so that they can keep delaying intercourse.

The end:

Wongani and Chikondi look back:

Wongani: "I was surprised when Chikondi started talking about alternative ways of being intimate with each other. Normally girls in our culture are not that assertive. But I am really glad she did, because we are in this relationship together. And I am happy, because we can be more intimate than I thought we could, even while abstaining from intercourse!"

Chikondi: "It was a big step for me to start talking about this. I didn't want Wongani to think I was 'easy'... But my teacher really gave me great, safe options and I am glad I did. Since then our relationship has grown and we also talk about other things now."

WORKSHEET CASE 2: CHIKONDI WANTS TO BE MORE INTIMATE

1. Hi Wongani, I've been thinking. You know we've been talking about getting more intimate with each other?

2. Yes, Chikondi, but we agreed we don't want to go all the way yet.

3.

4. Really, more options? Like what?

5

6. That sounds good. But....don't you think that's risky? We don't want to have intercourse yet, right?

7.

8. We can? What did your teacher say to you?

9.

10. That sounds good, because I really want to abstain from intercourse until we get married.
